

“BIDDERS SHATTER SIX RECORDS AT ART AUCTION”

THE GLOBE AND MAIL
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 2005

“Records are made to be broken and, as Yoda would say, broken they were, at last night’s auction of high-end Canadian art in Toronto.”

THE GLOBE AND MAIL REVIEW

“After 10 years of rising prices, the Canadian art market continues bullish ... Joyner’s sold the most pricey work: Lawren Harris’s 12 by 15 inch oil sketch of Mount Robson for $567,500.”

THE TORONTO STAR

Our recent spring sale of Canadian Art was a resounding success with almost $6 million worth of art auctioned over two days. Numerous records were set and we were pleased to have been entrusted with the Lawren Harris oil sketch of Mount Robson which sold for the highest price this season, reaffirming our position as the leading auction house for works by the Group of Seven.

We already have many fine paintings consigned for our forthcoming fall auction, including a major canvas by James Wilson Morrice (illustrated below).

Our specialists are available to provide advice on selling as well as to prepare formal written appraisals for insurance or other purposes. Please contact Tracey Gorges, client services administrator, to discuss our services.
