

Highlights of the Joyner Waddington's 2004 Fall Auction

The auction room at Waddington's was packed to overflowing for the Joyner Waddington's fall sale of Canadian Art.

The first lot of the evening, "Sunglow, Uppertown, Quebec", a small, fine work by Robert Pilot set the tone for the evening. Estimated at $5,000 - $7,000, the tiny 5 1/2 by 7 inch oil on panel was knocked down at $14,950.

The much admired Fortin, "Baie St. Paul Sous La Neige", also soared past its pre-sale estimate of $200,000 - $300,000 and sold for $377,100 to break the long held record for Fortin's work of $160,000 set in 1988.

The overall total for the auction well exceeded the high estimate with considerable interest across the spectrum of Canadian art, confirming a continued strong market.
